

I urge the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160. XM's local content (traffic and weather information) is a benefit to public safety. As a frequent traveller I find it assuring to know that even in a new town I can quickly find information on important weather and traffic information for the city I am visiting. Please refrain from limiting the public's choice to programming and content by rejecting this petition.